THIS AGREEMENT is entered into on _____ (Date agreement is signed) by and between Vision Property Inspections. (Hereinafter “INSPECTOR”) and the undersigned (hereinafter “CLIENT”) collectively referred to herein as “parties.”

Please read and sign this Inspection Agreement. This document explains the Scope of the Inspection, Limits of the Inspection, General Exclusions, Terms and Conditions, Limitations of Liability, and an Arbitration Agreement. You may call us for an explanation of this agreement or any aspect of the report which you do not fully understand.

The Parties Understand and Voluntarily Agree as follows:

Expectations. The home inspection process will follow these steps.

- The Inspection agreement must be read and signed prior to the inspection being conducted.
- This agreement will be retained for no less than 5 years and the inspection report will be retained for no less than 3 years.
- The inspection will follow the Internachi and ASHI standards of practice. This is not a code compliance inspection.
- All inspection reports will be provided in writing.
- The inspection is a “Limited Visual inspection” limited to what can be seen, no furniture or personal items can or will be moved in the conduction of the inspection. See Limits of the Inspection.
- The Inspection constitutes a “Picture in Time” of the property being inspected.
- No Destructive Testing can, may or will be conducted.
- After the inspection there will be a summary walk through to review any inspection findings.
- Payment for the inspection service is due upon completion of the inspection.
- The written inspection report will be ready by the end of the next business day, after the inspection fee is paid.
- The inspection is not an appraisal, as a result property pricing will not be covered as a part of the inspection.
- The inspector will review the safety and functional details for the property and may not be licensed for any of the repairs that might be necessary.
- Soil and foundation movement can happen in any area, especially in areas prone to said condition and the inspection can observed only what is visible on the day of the inspection and cannot be held liable for future conditions.
- The inspector does not provide Structural strength, adequacy, or efficiency of any system or component.
- The written inspection report will be delivered to the client within 5 business days of the inspections.

1. Scope of Inspection. The Home Inspection is a limited visual inspection of the apparent condition of the readily accessible systems and components of the property and detached structures. Latent and concealed defects and deficiencies are excluded from the inspection. The systems and components to be inspected include: Landscaping, exterior walkways, visible foundation, property exterior, roofing, plumbing, electrical, attic, interior walls and flooring, bathrooms and kitchen, kitchen appliances, basement and crawlspaces, heating and cooling systems (weather Permitting), structural ventilation, garage or carport, fireplaces and solid fuel burning appliances (if present). The client is encouraged to participate in the post inspection walk through to review the inspection and ask questions of the inspector if any. The inspection and report are performed and prepared for the sole, confidential and exclusive use and possession of the client(s). The inspection report is not transferable.

2. Limits of the Inspection. The inspection is limited to the readily accessible and visible systems, equipment and components of the home. The inspector will not dismantle and/or move equipment, systems, furniture, appliances, floor coverings, finished or fastened surfaces or components, personal property or other items to conduct this inspection or otherwise to expose concealed or inaccessible conditions. The inspection will not include destructive testing of any kind.

3. General Exclusion. The client acknowledges and agrees that this Inspection and the inspection report and findings are limited in nature and scope, and that the following are outside the scope of the inspection, therefore they cannot be accurately assessed by the inspector during the inspection. The following are components that are excluded from the inspection: Asbestos, Lead Paint, Soil, Air Quality, Swimming Pools, Hot Tubs, Sprinkler Systems, Water Wells, Water Softeners, Water quality, mold and sewer systems, ancillary electrical systems such as A/V theater systems, intercoms and non-excisable wiring. Basic operational testing of built-in kitchen appliances is performed (dishwasher/oven/range/microwave/garbage disposal). No determination beyond basic operation is made regarding the performance of or service life of appliances. The results of the inspection are applicable for the day of the inspection only.

No Guarantee or warranty. The Inspection and Inspection report are not a guarantee or warranty that the items inspected are defect-free, or that concealed defects do not or will not exist. Problems may exist even though signs of such may not be present during the inspection. No representation is made as to how long any equipment will continue to function.

Reinspection for verification of repairs. A reinspection of the same property is available for 15 days at no cost, if a reinspection is desired, it must be requested during that first 15 calendar days after the first inspection. On the 16th calendar day or beyond the reinspection will have a fee of $75.00 per 30 minutes up to the original inspection fee.,
